- BERTHOLD, Dr. E. Analysis of the Tones Included in the Secondary Noise of an Intermitting Tuning-Fork 250
- BURNETT, Swan M., M.D. Abstract of American Otological Literature for the First Quarter of 1879 183
- Abstract of American Otological Literature for the Second Quarter of 1879 284
- An Abstract of American Otological Literature for the Third Quarter of 1879 370
- Objective Aural Sounds Produced by Voluntary Contraction of the Tubal Muscles. 357
- CAPRON, Dr. F. P. Report on the Proceedings of the Section on Otology of the British Medical Association, held at Cork, August, 1879. (Being an Abstract of the Report published in the British Medical Journal, August 30, 1879.) 360
- COGGIN, David, M.D. A New Test for Simulated One-sided Deafness 177
- ELY, Dr. Edward T. Note on the Treatment of Acute Suppuration of the Middle Ear 178
- GERSTER, A. G., M.D. Extensive Caseous Osteitis of the Mastoid Process and Petrous Bone, Caused by Chronic Purulent Inflammation of the Middle Ear.—Operation.—Permanent Fistula of the Mastoid.—Recovery 81
- GRUENING, Dr. Emil. On the Indications for Opening the Mastoid Process in Cases of Otitis Media Purulenta Acuta, with Implication of the Mastoid Cells 84
- HACKLEY, Charles E., M. D. The Use of Toynbee's Artificial Ear-Drum 228
- HARTMANN, Dr. Arthur. On Sclerosis of the Mastoid Process 322
- On the Formation of Sequestra in the Mastoid Process of the Child 26
- Pathology and Therapeutics of the Organ of Hearing. (Report on the Progress of Otology in the First Half of the Year 1878.) 187, 288
- Pathology and Therapeutics of the Organ of Hearing. (Report on the Progress of Otology in the Second Half of the Year 1878.) 399
- HOLMES, Dr. E. L. A Case of Objective Aural Sounds 144
- KIPP, Charles J. Four Cases of Intracranial Disease Caused by Chronic Suppuration of the Middle Ear. Two Recoveries and Two Deaths 147
- KNAPP, H. A Case of Parotidian and Intratympanic Malignant Tumor 311
- Condylomata of Both External Ear Canals 165
- Primary Acute Purulent Inflammation of the Middle Ear I
- LÖWE, L. Embryology and Comparative Anatomy of the Organ of Hearing. (Report on the Progress of Otology in the First Half of the Year 1878.) 104
- MOOS, S. A Case of Closure of the Auditory Meatus and Loss of Hearing by the Formation of Exostosis Complicated with Acute Perforative Inflammation of the Middle Ear, with Repeatedly Recurring Granulations.—Restoration by the Use of Laminaria and Galvano-Cautery 223
- Contributions to the Pathology and Pathological Anatomy of the Organ of Hearing 113
- Four Cases of Disease of the Mastoid Process 231

- On a Traumatic Moveable
Hæmatoma of the Membrana
Tympani 332
- ROOSA, Dr. D. B. St. John. A Case of Acute Inflammation of the Middle Ear, with Inflammation of the Muscles of the Neck, and Facial Paralysis of the same Side.—Recovery. With Some Remarks upon the Indications for Wilde's Incision and Trephining of the Mastoid Process 255
- Syphilitic Diseases of the Internal Ear. Being a Review of Some Recent Papers upon this Subject 336
- SCHALLE, Dr. An Instrument for Removing Fluids from the Tympanum 215
- SCHWABACH, Dr. D. On Bran-chial Fistulæ at the External Ear 246
- STEINBRÜGGE, H. Normal and Pathological Anatomy of the Organ of Hearing. (Report on the Progress of Otology in the First Half of the Year 1878.) 89, 205
- On the Sinus Tympani . 53
- Report on Normal and Pathological Anatomy. (Report on the Progress of Otology in the Second Half of the Year 1878.) 381
- The Histology of the Inferior Turbinated Bones, and of the Teleangiectatic Fibromata Arising from them. (With Plates I and II.) 269
- STEVENS, Geo. T., M.D. A Case of Tumor of the Auditory Nerve Occupying the Fossa for the Cerebellum 171
- TURNBULL, Chas. S., M.D. The Audiphone and Dentaphone . 373
- WEBSTER, Dr. David. Clinical Contributions to Otology. From the Practice of Dr. C. R. Agnew 65
- WOLF, Dr. Oscar. Experiments with Edison's Phonograph . . 58
- Physiology of the Organ of Hearing. (Report on the Progress of Otology in the First Half of the Year 1878.) . 98, 207
- Physiology of the Organ
of Hearing. (Report on the Progress of Otology in the Second Half of the Year 1878.) . 388

INDEX OF SUBJECTS TO VOLUME VIII.

- Abstract of American Otological Literature for the First Quarter of 1879. By Swan M. Burnett, of Washington, D. C. . . . 183
- of American Otological
Literature for the Second Quarter of 1879. By Swan M. Burnett, of Washington, D. C. . 284
- of American Otological
Literature for the Third Quarter of 1879. By Swan M. Burnett, of Washington, D. C. . 370
- Analysis of the Tones Included in the Secondary Noise of an Intermittent Tuning-Fork. By Dr. E. Berthold, of Königsberg 250
- Anatomy. Contributions to the Pathology and Pathological—of the Organ of Hearing. By Prof. S. Moos 113
- Embryology and Comparative—of the Organ of Hearing. By L. Löwe, of Berlin . 104
- Normal and Pathological —and Histology of the Organ of Hearing. By H. Steinbrügge, of Heidelberg . 89, 205
- Report on Normal and Pathological. By Dr. H.
Steinbrügge 381
- Audiphone, The—and Denta-phone. By Chas. S. Turnbull, M.D., of Philadelphia . 373
- Auditory Nerve. A Case of Tumor of the—Occupying the Fossa for the Cerebellum. By Geo. T. Stevens, M.D., of Albany, N. Y. 171
- Clinical Contributions to Otology.
From the Practice of Dr.
C. R. Agnew. Reported by Dr.
David Webster, of New York . 65

- Closure. A Case of—of the Auditory Meatus and Loss of Hearing by the Formation of Exostoses, Complicated with Acute Perforative Inflammation of the Middle Ear, with Repeatedly Recurring Granulations—Restoration by the Use of Laminaria and Galvano-Cautery. By S. Moos, of Heidelberg 223
- Condylomata of Both External Ear Canals. By H. Knapp . . 165
- Contributions. Clinical—to Otol-ogy. From the Practice of Dr. C. R. Agnew. Reported by Dr. David Webster, of New York 65
- to the Pathology and Pathological Anatomy of the Organ of Hearing. By Prof. S. Moos 113
- Deafness. A New Test for Simu-lated One-sided. By David Coggin, M.D., of Salem, Mass. 177
- Dentaphone. The Audiphone and. By Chas. S. Turnbull, M.D., of Philadelphia . . . 373
- Disease. Four Cases of—of the Mastoid Process. By S. Moos, of Heidelberg 231
- Douche. A New Aural . . . 355
- Ear-Drum. The Use of Toyn-bee's Artificial. By Charles E. Hackley, M.D. 228
- Embryology and Comparative Anatomy of the Organ of Hearing. By L. Löwe, of Berlin 104
- Exostoses. A Case of Closure of Auditory Meatus and Loss of Hearing by the Formation of,—Complicated with Acute Perforative Inflammation of the Middle Ear, with Repeatedly Recurring Granulations—Restoration by the Use of Laminaria and Galvano-Cau-tery. By S. Moos, of Heidel-berg 223
- Experiments with Edison's Phono-graph. By Dr. Oscar Wolf, of Frankfort-on-the-Main . . . 58
- External Ear. Condylomata of Both—Canals. By H. Knapp . 165
- On Branchial Fistulæ at the. By Dr. D. Schwabach, of Berlin 246
- Fistulæ. On Branchial—at the External Ear. By Dr. D. Schwabach, of Berlin . . . 246
- Fluids. An Instrument for Re-mov-ing—from the Tympanum. By Dr. Schalle, of Hamburg. . 215
- Formation. On the—of Seques-tra in the Mastoid Process of the Child. By Dr. Arthur Hartmann, of Berlin . . . 26
- Hæmatoma. On a Traumatic Movable—of the Membrana Tympani. By Prof. S. Moos, of Heidelberg 332
- Histology. Normal and Patho-logical Anatomy and—of the Organ of Hearing. By H. Steinbrügge, of Heidelberg 89, 205
- The—of the Inferior Tur-binated Bones, and of the Teleangiectatic Fibromata aris-ing from them. By H. Stein-brügge, M.D., of Heidelberg. (With Plates I and II.) . . . 269
- Inflammation. A Case of Acute —of the Middle Ear, with In-flammation of the Muscles of the Neck, and Facial Paralysis of the same side. Recovery. With Some Remarks upon the Indications for Wilde's Incision and Trephining of the Mastoid Process. By Dr. D. B. St. John Roosa, of New York . . . 255
- Primary Acute Purulent—of the Middle Ear. By H. Knapp 1
- Instrument. An—for Removing Fluids from the Tympanum. By Dr. Schalle, of Hamburg . 215
- Internal Ear. Syphilitic Diseases of the. Being a Review of Some Recent Papers upon this Subject. By D. B. St. John Roosa, M.D. 336
- Intracranial. Four Cases of—Disease Caused by Chronic Suppuration of the Middle Ear. Two Recoveries and Two Deaths. By Dr. Charles J. Kipp, of Newark, N. J. . . 147
- Literature. Abstract of American Otol-ogical—for the First Quar-ter of 1879. By Swan M. Bur-nett, of Washington, D. C. . 183
